CIO Roundtable

Today, the expectations on a CIO are great. CIOs need to be skilled business leaders with strong cross-functional skills, have global experience and possess exceptional interpersonal and soft skills. Additionally, they need to have the ability to be forward-looking, to provide innovation through technology, to re-design business processes and be proactive in aligning business and IT.

The CIO Roundtable Series provides the best venue for CIOs to further develop their skills and knowledge base. It serves as the premier place for Information Technology executives to interact with peers in a non-selling and non-competitive forum.

Health IT Leadership Summit

The Georgia Department of Economic Development, Metro Atlanta Chamber, and TAG Health founded the annual Health IT Leadership Summit in 2010. Annually, the Health IT Leadership Summit attracts more than 600 attendees for the full day conference. Representatives of Georgia's robust health IT community are in attendance including educators, providers, payers, and law makers.

Conference content includes keynote presentations by Health IT Industry leaders, panel discussions, and awards Student presentations. The Health IT Leadership Summit is the home for the Innovation Awards, Phoenix Awards and Health IT Awards.

These critical events have highlighted Georgia's leadership in the industry and addressed the actions needed to build and sustain a premier health IT workforce.

TAG Digital Media & Entertainment Industry Summit

Georgia is now well on the path of establishing itself as one of the world's leading entertainment and digital media hubs. Join the TAG Digital Media & Entertainment Society as we host the 2018 Entertainment Industry Summit. This year's Summit will grow and build off of the past three years exciting events, making available unique cross industry networking opportunities with industry leaders from throughout the state of Georgia.

As Georgia continues to grow its position in the entertainment and digital media industries; recognizing emerging trends in leadership and where industry beneficially converges becomes an important road-map to our unique strengths and position within the global marketplace. Assembling local experts in the top of their fields from film & broadcast, music, and digital media (gaming and interactive marketing); attendees will be able to share their developments and challenges in a uniquely collaborative environment as they hear top industry professionals explore where Georgia excels in this rapidly growing driver of our state's economy.

TAGit Golf Tournament

Come join the Technology Association of Georgia for our annual TAGit golf tournament in September. This sell-out event supports TAG and the TAG Education Collaborative.

Since its inception the TAG Education Collaborative has given over $200,000 in scholarships to assist high school students in pursuing technology careers, and a portion of TAGit proceeds benefit the TAG Education Collaborative STEM initiatives and the programs that go along with it.

We hope that you will support TAG and the TAG Education Collaborative by coming out and networking with some of the state's most well known C-Level Executives while playing in the state's most prestigious golf tournament for technology stakeholders. This event will surely sell-out, so reserve your spot today!

Excalibur Awards

TAG initiated the Excalibur awards in 2005 to recognize and call attention to Georgia's "tech-enabled" companies who demonstrate exemplary competency in utilizing technology to enhance their business.

We define a "tech-enabled" as a buyer of technology as opposed to a producer. The best of these companies find great ways to use current and often times, disruptive technology to facilitate competitive advantage. Every February, at the Georgia Technology Summit, TAG recognizes the achievements of the top technology companies. Our Excalibur awards distinguish the people, departments and companies, large and small, who are the recipients of such technologies.

The Excalibur award competition affords technology companies, consultants, Chambers of Commerce and other institutions an excellent opportunity to nominate the companies that understand the importance of technology, make the investment, and reap the rewards.

STEM Education Awards

The annual S.T.E.M. Education Awards honors Georgia companies, schools, programs, and public/private partnerships for outstanding efforts and achievements in supporting and promoting Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math Education.

This annual event will feature a variety of panels comprised of industry and education experts. Exhibit areas for S.T.E.M. Education programs and partnerships will open at 10:00 AM. A Keynote Lunch will be provided, followed by panel discussions between 1:30 to 4:30. The program will conclude with an awards ceremony in the evening with a notable Keynote Speaker, during which we will recognize the achievements and outstanding efforts of companies, school, public/private partnerships, and programs in Georgia for their outstanding efforts in advancing S.T.E.M. education.

Key S.T.E.M. education stakeholders are encouraged to join us for this important gathering of thought-leaders. A portion of the proceeds from the S.T.E.M. Education Awards will go to support the TAG Education Collaborative, a non-profit 501c3 dedicated to advancing S.T.E.M. education in Georgia, and TAG Savannah. For more information about the TAG Education Collaborative, please visit www.tagedonline.org
