

2008 Semi Final Judge

Guido Sacchi

Chief Information Officer and Executive Director, Shared Services, CompuCredit

Dr. Guido Sacchi serves as the Chief Information Officer and Executive Director, Shared Services, of CompuCredit. At CompuCredit, Guido's responsibilities include setting and executing the company's IT strategies, delivering business value from technology, and running the company's worldwide IT and shared services operations. Guido has an exceptional track record in improving business performance through the design and execution of IT strategies and through the design and execution of IT strategies and programs. He specializes in leveraging technology to drive growth and performance improvements.

In the past, Guido has worked at the executive level to align IT and business performance, thus achieving tangible returns on IT investments. Guido's experience and background include senior management positions at Deloitte Consulting and Pricewaterhouse Coopers, 14 years of international experience across industries, degrees in engineering from the University of Rome (Italy), and appointments at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Guido lives in Atlanta, GA with his wife, Ellen, and his children, Lorenzo and Alessia. He is a frequent speaker and magazine contributor on the topics of technology management, intersection of business and technology, leadership, and organizational change. He serves on the CIO Advisory Board of the Georgia CIO Leadership Association (GCLA), and on the Board of Directors of Park Pride, a non-profit organization dedicated to improving quality of life in metro Atlanta through the preservation, improvement and creation of parks and recreational spaces. He is active in the WIT (Women in Technology) programs and serves as a mentor in the Georgia 100 program. Guido is the 2004 GCLA National CIO of the Year and a recipient of the 2004 & 2005 CIO 100 Award.